Intro: Am – C/B – C

(verse 1)

Am C/B C
When life becomes the most
G
Bitter cup of all

F
And fighting seems not worth the trouble

Am C/B C
You struggle to retain
G

All you can contain

F
And still you find yourself without peace

(chorus 1 & 2)

C C/B
If there's grace enough for you
Am

F
Is there grace enough for me?

C C/B
Because it's all I've got to put my hope in

Am
And I cannot see a door

F
But I'm fighting to believe

Am
That there is something more

(still F)

Something greater for me

(bridge instrumental: Am – G – C/E – F)

(verse 2)

Am C/B C
Now the rain has turned
G
To hail and snow and sleet

F
And I can't see a thing beyond my arm's length

Am C/B C
I will not place my trust

G
In what I feel or see
F

I am only moved by what I believe

(last chorus)

C C/B
If there's grace enough for you
Am

F
Then there's grace enough for me

Am
Cause it's all I've got to put my hope in

F
And I cannot see a door

Am
But I'm fighting to believe

F
That there is something more

(still F)

Something greater for me
