(verse 1)

I have found my reason to sing
Cause I believe that You laid down everything

I have found my safe place to come
Where I know You comfort me
And I feel my heart is free

(chorus)

I can shout cause You fill my heart with joy
And the chains that held me bound
Are broken and no more

And I can dance cause You hold me in Your hand
Now my heart is free
Cause You gave Your life for me

(verse 2/verse 3)

In my life Your purpose I seek
Cause I know You're using me
And You make my life complete

And in the trials, the burdens I bear
I give them all into Your hands
And I cast on You my cares
