

Freedom Calls

© Aaron Logan 2008

(verse 1)

You are drawing on my heart
I have heard and felt the call

(pre-chorus)

And You lift me up
In Your hands of strength
The cry of my heart
Is to know and love Your name

(chorus)

I want to be free
Want You to use me
I want to give You everything I am
I want to live for
Your plan and destiny
To see Your greater purpose fulfilled in me

(verse 2)

I have set my mind above
You are healing me with love
Though I stumble and may fall
I will answer the call

(bridge)

Freedom calls from the other side
Freedom calls from the other side
Freedom calls from the other side
We will come, we will come
